

County Commissioner Harold Webb – A Democratic Hero

Harold Webb has led a rich life, with vast contributions to the country, state, Wake County, and the Democratic Party. During World War II, he served in the famous Tuskegee Airmen. Following graduation from North Carolina A&T, he served North Carolina public schools for many years as a school teacher, principal, and Deputy State School Superintendent. He served as State Personnel Director in North Carolina. He has been on many boards and commissions for a variety of community organizations and colleges. He earned an honorary doctorate from A&T and a Congressional Gold Medal for his service in World War II. He has worked tirelessly for Democratic candidates in North Carolina and Wake County and been an officer in the Wake County Senior Democrats. Since 2004 he has served as a Wake County Commissioner.